1957 Acorn

OUR LIFE AT OAKWOOD —

Studying a

Each year we gain valuable knowledge through many subjects. We are offered a variety of academic courses — English, history, civics, economics, biology, chemistry, physics, algebra, geometry, Latin, French, Spanish, and many more. This year German was added to the curriculum.

Of course there is always the test — whether it be a quiz, a weekly or a six-weeks' test, or a semester exam. But our testing program does not stop here! Our scores in Every Pupil Tests are compared with those of students all over the state.

Preliminary District State Scholarship Tests are taken in the latter part of March. Students receiving the three highest scores in each test go to Miami University to participate in the finals there. We are quite proud of those who win high places in both the county and the state.

A real challenge is presented to us through these tests which prove most valuable. In each grade, seventh through twelfth, there are certain tests, given by the psychological department, which the entire class is required to take.

In January many seniors spend extra hours preparing for the Senior Scholarship Tests by coming early in the morning for special review periods.

College Board Examinations, which some colleges require for entrance, cannot be overlooked. These tests are very important to many juniors and seniors who are planning to attend college.

And so as we study and learn, thus increasing our knowledge, testing becomes an accepted phase of our work. It is an activity from which we are unable to escape!

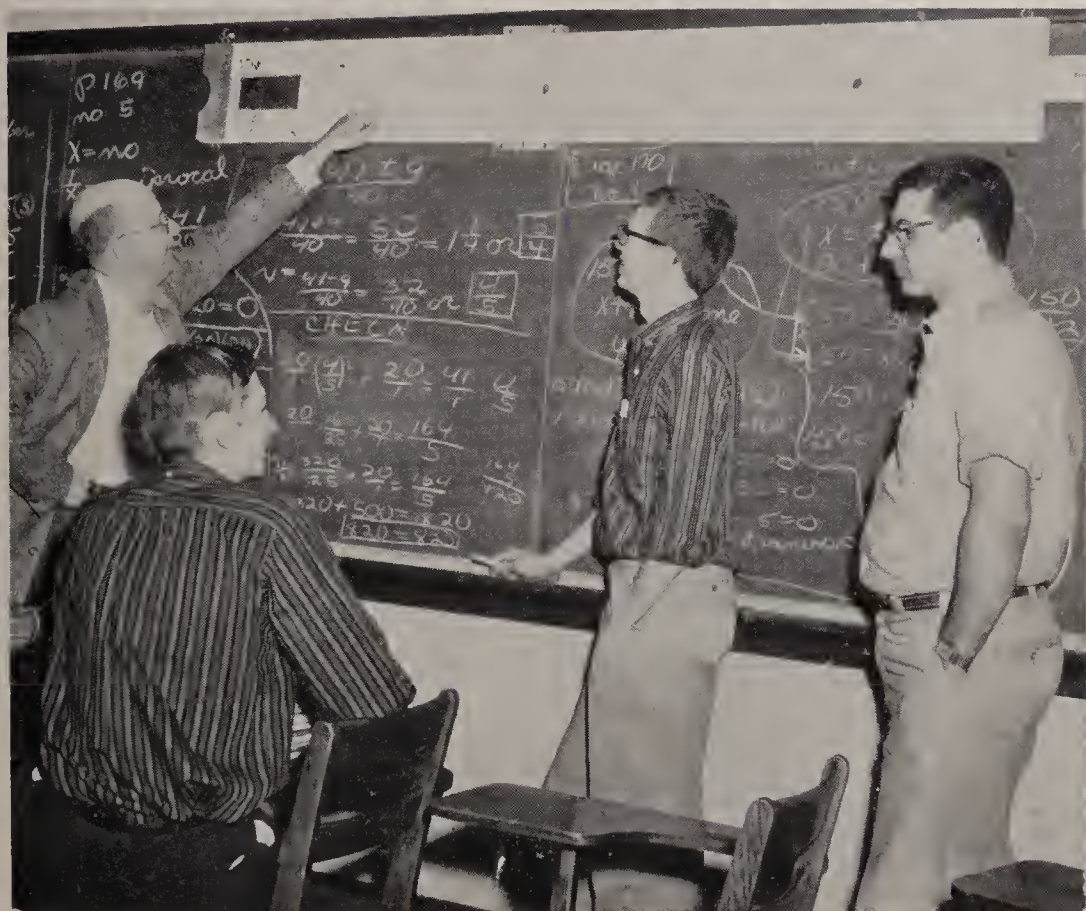

Seniors meet in the library for a required mental maturity test.

Variety of Subjects . . .

Students learn how science affects their every day living through a practical application of chemistry. Mr. McClellan distributes the necessary chemicals so students can test for acids, bases, and salts.

By the use of his giant slide rule, Mr. Juniper is better able to help his advanced math students solve their problems.

Miss Campbell's colored slides and descriptions of her two summer trips to Mexico highlight her Spanish classes. Having seen some real bullfights, she is able to explain the correct procedure to her students.

Students make a last minute check for art exhibit.

Developing Our Talents

We work hard not only in our academic courses but also in the arts. Art, mechanical drawing, home economics, industrial arts, and printing courses give us the opportunity to develop our creative talents and have fun too. After working all year on many projects, we have a chance to display them in the Four-Arts Exhibit. Our senior high gym comes to life in the middle of May as drawings cover the walls and projects fill the room.

Through the training they receive from mechanical drawing, boys learn to be neat and precise in their work.

Girls in home economics learn to be future home-makers by developing their skill in sewing and cooking.

The Do-It-Yourself craze is nothing new to students in shop. With the help of Mr. Cato the boys produce some outstanding projects.

in the Four-Arts . . .

All of the material exhibited is judged with several winners in each category. Excitement and enthusiasm run high as everyone is eager to see who has won the ribbons.

Tickets and programs are two of the many items printed for the school by Mr. Hoffman's printing class. Samples of their work are displayed at the Four-Arts Exhibit.

We get helpful hints from other schools as we play host to the S W B L Student Council Conference.

Planning for the School

Seniors attempt to discover their main interests.

Planning for our future after we leave Oakwood is important to each of us. Many seniors take a battery of vocational tests given by Miss Turton to see what kind of work would be best suited to them.

The junior and senior high student councils plan events and projects for the student body during the year. Recognizing the growing problem of dishonor among students, the student council organized four honor study halls to prove that teenagers can be trusted. Through the excellent cooperation of students who proved they could study without faculty supervision, this experiment was very successful.

Early in the year we students, in a group sponsored by the Oakwood "Y", go down to Camp Kern for the day and discuss not only "Y" problems but also school problems such as school spirit, class unity, and school morality.

The deans, Miss Hadel and Mr. Hummon, willingly take time to discuss entrance requirements for college with seniors.

Year — and the Future . . .

While taking it easy, we discuss school and "Y" problems at Camp Kern.

Showing School Spirit —

We honor the football team at an afternoon pep assembly.

The Southwestern Buckeye League Trophy for sportsmanship was awarded our school because of the excellent school spirit shown on the football and basketball teams and by the students in the stands. Proudly received by the student body, this honor proved that clean fun is worth fighting for.

A special cheering section at the football games helped to have better organized cheering. Cartwheels by the cheerleaders added to the pep and enthusiasm of our yells. The band seemed louder and better than ever this year.

An added feature to the girls' hockey team were the Pep Boys, who led cheers at the hockey games. They also helped the cheerleaders at some of the football games.

The team makes a dramatic entrance on the field before the game.

on the Teams or in the Stands . . .

After the football, basketball, and hockey seasons were over, spring weather sparked another spirit within us to participate in spring sports. Baseball, track, golf, and tennis provided good competition for many of us.

An Oakwood player tips the ball into the basket as the others watch expectantly. Although the team won few games, the boys showed a fighting spirit.

Yelling "Let's go! Let's fight! Let's win!" we take an active part in the football games.

Fighting for the ball in many games brings another undefeated season to the Jills.

Joining in Fun

Painting gay murals for a prom is part of the fun.

"All work and no play" is certainly not our motto. From October through February plans are always in the making for either a senior, junior, or sophomore prom. Each class works hard and tries to make its prom the biggest and best social event of the year. Girls dressed in beautiful formals and boys in their very best suits or tux all have a gay time in the cleverly decorated gym. The senior's "Winter Indigo," the junior's "Oriental Holiday," and the sophomore's "A Night in the Nineties" are memorable events for all. Many opportunities for responsibility and leadership are connected with a prom, for everyone in the class has a chance to help with the planning and organizing.

and Friendship . . .

Girls meet informally at Girls' League Chit-Chat.

We all enjoy getting together with our friends. After football and basketball games the whole gang goes to the "Y" Open Houses for a good time. Many parties and dances are also held at the "Y" during the year, the most important one being the New Year's Eve Dance.

There are many informal get-togethers at the end of the year as many clubs and organizations have parties and picnics for their last meeting of the year.

The "Virginia Reel" and "Charleston" keep the "Y" vibrating!

Selling popcorn in the community, the Hi-Y's and Tri-Hi-Y's raise money for World Service.

Working for fellow students, the OAK LEAF staff produces a paper every two weeks.

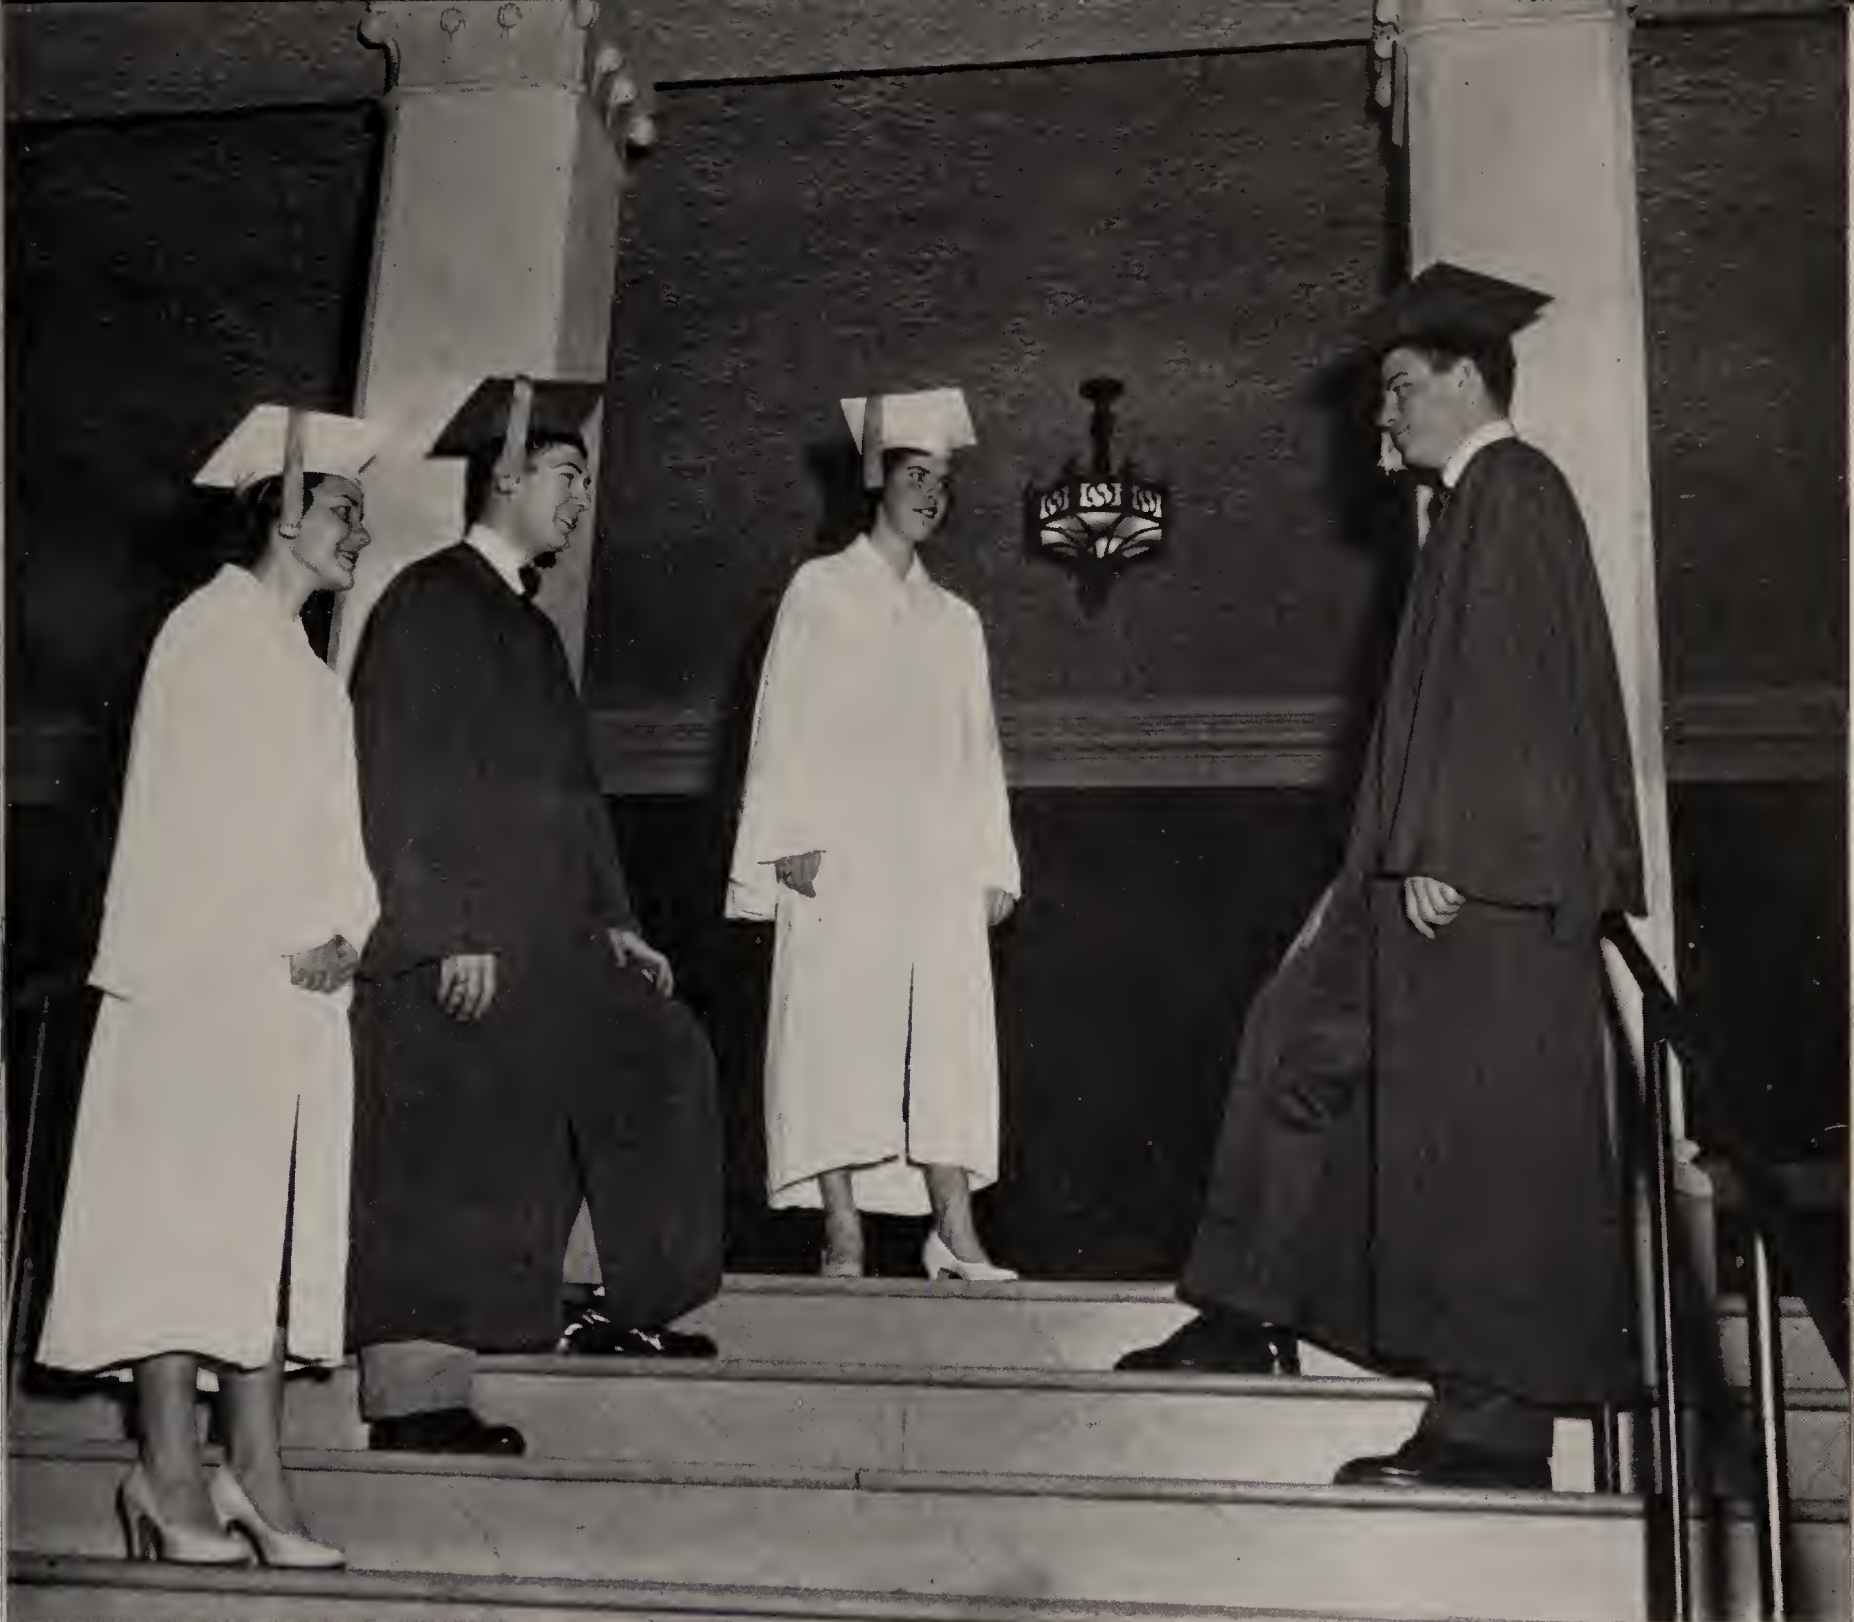

Working for Others . . .

Through many of our extracurricular activities here at Oakwood, we are able to help and work for others. Whether it be for the school, community, country, or world we are learning to be good citizens.

Sponsored by the Girls' League, baskets for needy families are filled at Thanksgiving time. During the Hungarian crisis the JCOWA took charge of collecting clothing and money for the Hungarian Relief Fund. And there are always the drives—Community Chest, Polio, and Red Cross—throughout the year.

Christmas is the time for filling Red Cross gift boxes for countries overseas.

And Achieving Our Goal

This is our life in the City of Oakwood at Oakwood High School and we are its students. We will try to keep the fine ideals it has set — to have faith and honor, to be worthy, true, and steadfast. For Oakwood —

*“This lasting heritage we’ll hold
As dear to us as Blue and Gold.”*

Class of '57 Greet First Day

One hundred and seventeen strong, the senior class of 1957 started its last year at Oakwood High School under the able guidance of Miss Baker, Mrs. Bender, Mr. Kuhns, and Mr. Juniper, senior advisers.

Extra-curricular activities took up almost as much time as studies. All in the Family was presented by the class in November under the direction of Mrs. Wood, assisted by student directors Ben Brown and Joan Schneider.

Soon after the class play came the senior prom, "Winter Indigo." Built around a motif of blue and silver, the dance was a huge success. Glenn Cooper and Martha Jane Ross were in charge of setting up all committees.

After the Christmas holidays, the seniors had to get down to some serious studying. Not only were first semester exams coming at the end of January, but College Boards and Senior Scholarship Tests also appeared in the near future. But all the hard work was well worth it for Jack Murphy, Steve Huffman, and John Fleischauer, who placed high in the Senior Scholarship Tests.

With no breather in between, seniors plunged into research themes right after exams. They could be seen gloomily walking the halls with note cards and Dayton Public Library books and muttering incoherent phrases with the words ibid. and op. cit. in them.

After research themes, the class began planning for their variety show. Peggy Pees and Bob Williams were in charge of setting up committees for "'57 Varieties." Practice was directed by Judy Van Scoyk, Joan Schneider, and Glenn Cooper. The variety show was a huge success and was well worth the hard work.

And finally after 6 years came class day, baccalaureate, and graduation. Baccalaureate was held at Westminster Church, June 2, and commencement at NCR Auditorium on June 8.

Juniors Possess Strong Unity

The junior class had a fine record of students with ability and leadership. Eleven of the thirteen-man basketball team were juniors, while a large number won football letters and participated in spring sports. Twelve of the girls won hockey letters.

The class of '58 also revealed talent in the music field with many members in the band. Dick Thompson, Bill Freudenberger, Carol Deebach, and Charles Comer showed great promise here, and Dick won second place in the state music contest. Judy Stolle and Kathy Gibbons proved their dancing abilities at various times during the year.

Many juniors participated in Junior Achievement, with Brooks Walker, Chuck Stuart, Clay Thompson,

Molly Brown and Denny Daily reigned over their prom, "Oriental Holiday." The class play, Little Women, was very well presented.

In other activities Doug Payne and Deanna Bryant were on the JCOWA television program, "Newsworthy." Sandy Grinnell and Anne Koppe won first place in the Town and Country Halloween window-painting contest.

In all, the juniors have proved to be an outstanding class and shown that they are well prepared to accept the responsibilities of being seniors.

Sophomores Enter Senior High

The sophomore class ended the year with a long list of accomplishments. By contributing the most to the Community Chest and the Hungarian Relief Fund, Mr. Andrews' homeroom, S-11, led the various drives.

Music held a prominent place among sophomores with Linda Vosmer, John Gray, Pam Harrington, Doug Fritz, and Bob Nunn in the band. Members of the girls' ensemble were Sue Ardery, Robin Alexander, Abby Griffith, Carol Lusk, Nancy Allen, and Carol Stoner.

Oakwood's most successful reserve football and basketball teams in many years were sparked by sophomores. Skip Kunst, Dave King, and Bob Jaeger were impressive in football, while Randy Thrasher graduated to the varsity basketball team and started the game against Butler. Cheering the boys were Abby Griffith, Sue Young, Carol Lusk, Nancy Thiele, Cindy Must, and substitute Carol Wietzel.

Queen Abby Griffith, King Randy Thrasher, and their court — Dave Teegarden, Karen Blu, Bob Crew, Sue Brundige, Bob Gebhart, Maureen McDonald, Bill Boswell, and Sue Young — ruled over their prom, "A Nite in the Nineties."

Freshmen Show Varied Abilities

As the leader of the junior high, the freshman class had a good record. Ninth graders participated in all activities offered at Oakwood and excelled in many outside the school. Bob Judd and Tom Kniesley were honor newsboys; Bob was also honored for his Scout work by receiving the rank of Eagle Scout. Bob Mitchell, also an Eagle, received the God and Country award, a high scout honor.

Music claimed many freshmen. Sharon French, Carol Cunningham, Margy Todd, Sue Spitler, Sue Brumbaugh, Virginia de Bruyn Kops, Kris Stump, Kay Andrew, and Sue Scott sang in the girls' ensemble. A boys' octette was formed by David Montgomery, Bert Smith, Bob Judd, Ronny Kocher, Larry Loschert, Steve Carr, Jack Martin, and Craig Johnson.

Many of the freshmen proved their ability in speechwork in the Prince of Peace Contest and in debate. Karin Olson and Walter Nielsen received superior ratings on the clarinet in the district music contest.

In the sports' world the class showed great promise. The ninth grade football team was undefeated this year. Phil Munger was the only freshman to make the reserve basketball team, and Bruce Comisar became the only ninth grader in the history of Oakwood to have played varsity and reserve football from the beginning of the season.

Eighth Grade Prepares For Leadership

This year's eighth graders proved worthy of accepting the responsibilities that go with assuming the leadership of the junior high next year.

Besides participating in all school events, many joined in outside activities. John Beckman received the Eagle Scout award; Jill Reeder and Jacquie Pickrel rode in horse shows last fall. John Bohrman performed often with the Y. M. C. A. swimming team, while Mike Creager won baseball awards. David Thomas and John Sisson won tennis trophies, giving hope to Oakwood's future championship tennis teams.

Eighth grade members of the band and the chorus took part in the music concerts given at Christmas and in the spring. Showing outstanding talent in piano were Sue Craig, Dottie Corwin, and Vonnie Lingle. John Olt and Bob Hughes were in the Dayton Boys' Choir.

Homeroom J-4 spearheaded the Hungarian Relief Drive for the junior high. Joining the class this year were two Hungarian boys—Zoltan Sari, promptly nicknamed Zoli, and Deszo Racz, commonly known as Desi.

Eighth graders provided the drive that resulted in excellent records for the football and basketball teams. Many girls practiced hockey in the fall under the watchful eye of Miss Hayner, who said she has high hopes for their future.

Seventh Grade Enlivens Oakwood

During the course of the year seventh graders showed that they could adapt themselves to Oakwood very well. They entered the junior high with fond memories of Harman and Smith and carried on the traditional rivalry for a while. Soon, however, they became as staunch Oakwoodites as the rest of us. They contributed generously to the Red Cross, Community Chest, and Polio drives.

Many members of the class proved outstanding in a variety of activities. Dinah Walters, an excellent pianist, travelled to Chicago to take part in a concert there. George Purcell won two awards for piano solos at a meeting of the National Federation of Music Clubs in Wilmington.

Many seventh graders were active in sports this year and put forth a great deal of effort to help the football and basketball teams. The girls were initiated into the worlds of hockey and badminton. Judy Ziegler and Chris Harlan were on an A. A. U. swimming team during the winter. Bob Brundige won many tennis and baseball trophies in outside competition.

Class elections proved a new experience for seventh graders who chose Paula Stone, Jane Walton, John White, and Bob Brundige as class officers. Cheerleaders, chosen by the entire junior high, were Karen Alexander, Jane Thiele, and Georgia Hassink.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS: Gerard, secretary; Riber, co-auditor; Madden, co-auditor; Abel, vice president; Grout, president.

The National Honor Society strives to promote scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and character. With Dave Grout, president; Bruce Abel, vice-president; Betsy Gerard, secretary; and Sally Madden and Cora Riber, co-auditors, meetings were held every Wednesday noon under Miss Baker's supervision.

Activities began early in October with the induction of twenty new members at an assembly program.

Serving as store clerks in the N. H. S. store, members sold needed school supplies each noon. This was one of the many ways it served the school.

At Christmas Beverly Johnson was hostess at the annual tea for members and alumni.

Repairing the tower and quadrangle clocks was a very worthwhile project for N. H. S. members. They also provided prizes for all who placed in the state in the Senior Scholarship and State Scholarship Tests.

Honoring the graduating seniors, a farewell picnic closed a busy and worthwhile year.

Councils Direct Student Affairs

School affairs were directed successfully under student council president Jack Heyde, and adviser, Mr. Patterson. Other officers included Floyd Graham, vice-president; Suzie Headley, secretary; and Molly Brown, treasurer.

At the request of the student body a student cheering section at football games was established.

The council also served as hosts for the annual Southwestern Buckeye Conference on December 14. Here they discussed ideas and problems of high schools and conducted a panel discussion before the senior high.

The most profitable and interesting project of the council was originating an honor study hall. This was one of the greatest steps the members have ever taken toward creating honor among students. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores interested in this project applied for admission to the honor study hall, and were screened by the study hall teacher, Mr. Patterson, and finally the student council.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Graham, vice-president; S. Headley, secretary; M. Brown, treasurer; Heyde, president.

JCOWA OFFICERS: Mr. Kuhns, adviser; Martha Ross, secretary; Lois Devol, vice-president; Linda Mansfield, JCRA representative; Ben Brown, president.

The Junior Council on World Affairs led by Ben Brown, president; Lois Devol, vice-president; Martha Ross, secretary-treasurer; Linda Mansfield, JCRA representative; and Mr. Kuhns, adviser, held meetings every Monday noon. Films and panel discussions on many crucial subjects were presented.

A Hungarian Relief Drive and a U. N. Week program were the chief projects of the year.

Oakwood's JCOWA took part in the World Institute at the Dayton-Biltmore Hotel in October. India's problems were discussed by students and speakers. On March 9, six delegates were sent to the Model General Assembly at Fairview High School where they discussed human rights, the Middle East, and technical aid.

"Newswordy," a special television program, was presented on WLW-D. It was modeled on the well-known television game, "Down You Go." Doug Payne and Deanna Bryant were the first panelists from Oakwood.

This year each member shared in the projects and programs of the club.

With a desire to share and to work for the good of others, Girls' League started the year with a party introducing the new girls. Officers for the year were president, Sue Courchene; vice-president and treasurer, Janet Mockabee; secretary, Nancy Allen; adviser, Miss Hadler.

The Thanksgiving spirit was shown when everyone filled baskets with food and sent them to needy families.

Along with the Christmas season came the annual Christmas dinner which was held in the library for senior high girls and women faculty members.

One of the biggest events of the year was the annual Girls' League Dance on April 27. The title of the dance, held in the senior high gym, was "April Aweigh."

The last event of the year was the Girls' League's Big Sister Party. This gave the ninth grade girls an opportunity to make new friends in the senior high for the coming year.

PEN & BRUSH OFFICERS: T. Griffith, president; K. Stump, secretary; Koppe, treasurer; Wasmuth, vice-president.

Pen and Brush Club membership climbed to 113 this year under the direction of the club adviser, Mr. Carmichael. Members elected as officers were Tom Griffith, president; Tom Wasmuth, vice-president; Anne Koppe, secretary; and Kris Stump, treasurer.

This year Oakwood students entered the Scholastic Art Show in Cincinnati and won forty-five honors. Sue Densmore, Roger Williams, Kristine Stump, Tom Griffith, Linda Cunningham, Pat Ellis, Beth VanWazer received first place awards. Oakwood students also won awards in illustration, jewelry, ceramics, cartooning, and oils.

In the spring the annual Four Arts Exhibit gave all students a chance to display their year's work. Ceramics, oils, water colors, sketches and many other types of work were judged by prominent art experts. Also in this display were exhibits from the home economics, manual training, and printing departments.

Another activity was selling Oakwood ballpoint pens.

The Junior Red Cross, under the advisership of Mrs. Griswold, has been a very active school organization. Officers were Martha Smith, president; Molly Brown, vice-president; Nancy Olt, secretary; and Robin Alexander, treasurer. They report the successful accomplishment of many worthwhile projects.

During the Christmas season, the Red Cross sponsored the filling of 200 gift boxes to be sent overseas for needy children. This project was under the direction of Mrs. Russell. Selling Oakwood book covers at various times during the year by the members was one of their many projects. Another worthwhile project the Junior Red Cross sponsored was the filling of a chest to be sent overseas. This school chest was filled with school supplies, health articles, and athletic equipment for an overseas school.

Members attended many rallies and meetings arranged by the downtown bureau throughout the school year.

To kick off their annual Red Cross Drive, the Red Cross sponsored the showing of the movie, "We Serve." The combined junior and senior high contributed a total of $122.50 in the drive.

"ALL IN THE FAMILY," the senior class play, opened the 1956-57 dramatic season at Oakwood. Presented on November 18 and 19, it was the story of a husband and wife who discover their teen-age son, George, is a genius. Cast as George were Steve Huffman and Bob Williams. Peggy Pees and Judy Van Scoyk played the mother and Bruce Abel and John Fleischauer, the father. After the Saturday night performance, Laura Johnson gave the cast party.

The juniors presented their class play, "LITTLE WOMEN," on March 8 and 9. Their choice of "LITTLE WOMEN" was the first costume play given at Oakwood in a number of years. Following the Saturday night performance, the cast party was given at Sharon Bahl's house.

On April 26 the sophomores gave their interpretation of "ONIONS IN THE STEW" by Betty McDonald. Following tradition, the freshman class also presented a class play in May. All of these productions were under the direction of Mrs. Signé Wood.

ACORN CO-EDITORS: Carolyn Brown, Laura Johnson.

OAK LEAF CO-EDITORS: Mary Altick, Janet Patterson.

Consisting of fourteen members, the ACORN staff began the busy production of their yearbook in September. Careful plans to revise the ACORN so it could have a new forward look started early in June. Miss Campbell, ACORN adviser, and co-editors Laura Johnson and Carolyn Brown spent many long hours coordinating the activities, which appear in the opening section.

Clicking typewriters, the slashing sound of the paper cutter, the closing of file drawers, and echoing voices were familiar sounds in the ACORN room, S-8.

After spring vacation all the confusion died down, and finally everyone realized that the finished product was a huge success.

OAK LEAF co-editors Janet Patterson and Mary Altick and their busy staff worked hard to produce the school newspaper. They found that measuring space for articles, reading proof, or traveling to the printer's shop were all big tasks. Miss Crisman, adviser, arranged for some of the reporters to have interviews with Harold Stassen, Richard Nixon, and Julius La Rosa.

This year Oakwood's Alpha Omega chapter of Quill and Scroll initiated sixteen new students in an effective candlelight service. To become members of Quill and Scroll, International Honor Society for High School Journalists, students were required to demonstrate outstanding journalistic ability and to rank in the upper third of their class. Officers for this year were Janet Patterson, president; Carolyn Brown, vice-president; Julie McFetridge, secretary-treasurer; and Sally Madden, program chairman. Many interesting programs were enjoyed at meetings held the first and third Thursday of each month.

Lettermen Honored in Varsity "O"

Increasing interest in athletics and providing service to the school and community were goals set by the Varsity "O" Club. Members proudly wear their sweaters with gold school letters, symbols of a Varsity "O" member. Membership is open to boys who earn a varsity letter in any major sport. Officers were Dave Grout, president; Floyd Graham, vice-president; Dave Young, secretary; Nick Warring, treasurer, and Mr. Small, adviser.

At Home basketball games Varsity "O" members helped Mr. Bigelow with tickets and seating.

Every year the club holds a dance to raise money for some worthwhile cause. Proceeds of this year's dance, "The Varsity Drag II," held at the "Y" on March 1, went to the spring sports' fund.

Though the boys had their fun, they also had a job of promoting interest in sports at Oakwood High School.

Activities included reorganizing the constitution and awarding a trophy to the outstanding senior athlete. The annual picnic, held in Hills and Dales, completed the program for the year.

Wearing new uniforms, the concert band presented its first concert, "The Blue and Gold Premier," on February 19. On May 10 the band gave its spring concert, featuring Linda Yates, pianist, and Marie Owen, flutist.

The band received a superior rating at the district and state contests.

Reigning over homecoming and celebrating Lumberjacks were Homecoming Queen Sally Madden and her court. Entering the field in five new convertibles, they were escorted to the platform in the center while the band played "Sweet and Lovely" in honor of the Queen and her attendants. Dave Grout, honorary football captain, presented the Queen with a bouquet of roses and crowned her with a white floral crown. The Queen and her court—Diana Prugh, Suzie Headley, Betsy Gerard, and Nancy Craig—watched the rest of the game from special seats on the 50-yard line.

The Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Student Council was given in the gym immediately following the game. Bob Williams and Linda Mansfield were co-chairmen. Decorations consisted of paper helmets each bearing the name of a player. Queen Sally Madden and King Nick Warring reigned on a dark blue and gold throne which was surrounded by yellow mums. Seated around them were their court and escorts, who were members of the team.

SUZIE HEADLEY

After the Trotwood-Madison game the annual "Basket Ball" highlighted the close of the basketball season. The "Y" was decorated with red and white streamers. King Nick Warring and Queen Suzie Headley and their royal court reigned over festivities. Chosen as their court by the senior boys were Sally Madden, Diana Prugh, Sue Courchene, and Sue Stickel. Their escorts were Rob Gieringer, Frank Holloway, Jim Campbell, and Charles Phillips.

After Bruce Abel and Betsy Gerard had crowned the king and queen, the court started the dancing for the evening. The queen was presented with a bouquet of white roses and a kiss from the king.

The success of this dance was due largely to the work of the committees. Committee heads were Cindy Common, refreshments; Nancy Shelton, decorations; Alice Moore, entertainment; Jim Campbell, publicity; and Sandy Smiley and Jerry Munson, clean-up.

Excellent entertainment was provided by seven senior girls during intermission.

SENIOR PROM COURT: Marcia Hollencamp, Steve Huffman, Judy Mockabee, Nelson Funkhouser, Sue Courchene, Jim Campbell, Suzie Headley, Frank Holloway, Queen Betsy Gerard, King Bruce Abel.

Blue and silver decorations added to the gaiety of the Senior Prom, "Winter Indigo," December 21. Glittering silhouettes portrayed the Christmas season on murals made under the direction of Martha Hooven and Laura Johnson. Co-chairmen of the dance were Martha Ross and Glenn Cooper.

Betsy Gerard and Bruce Abel reigned over the prom with Marcia Hollencamp and Steve Huffman, Sue Courchene and Jim Campbell, Suzie Headley and Frank Holloway, Judy Mockabee and Nelson Funkhouser as their court.

Ronnie Meyer's band supplied excellent dance music during the entire evening.

Unusual entertainment — "King, This Is Your Life" — was provided by the senior boys under the direction of Bob Williams.

At "Oriental Holiday," the Junior Prom on November 21, Molly Brown and Denny Daily were crowned king and queen. Members of their court were Julie McFetridge and Floyd Graham, Susan Wall and Chuck Stuart, Doris Edmonson and Dave Young, Judy Stolle and Bill Barber.

The junior class officers — Chuck Stuart, Patty Bieser, Karen Johnson, and Bill Stephens — were the co-chairmen of the junior prom, "Oriental Holiday."

With Mr. Martin, director, Mrs. Edmonson and Mrs. Dailey, advisers, Bruce Abel, president; Pete Smith, vice-president; and Sue Brundige, secretary, the Senior Youth Council planned many enjoyable activities for the "Y".

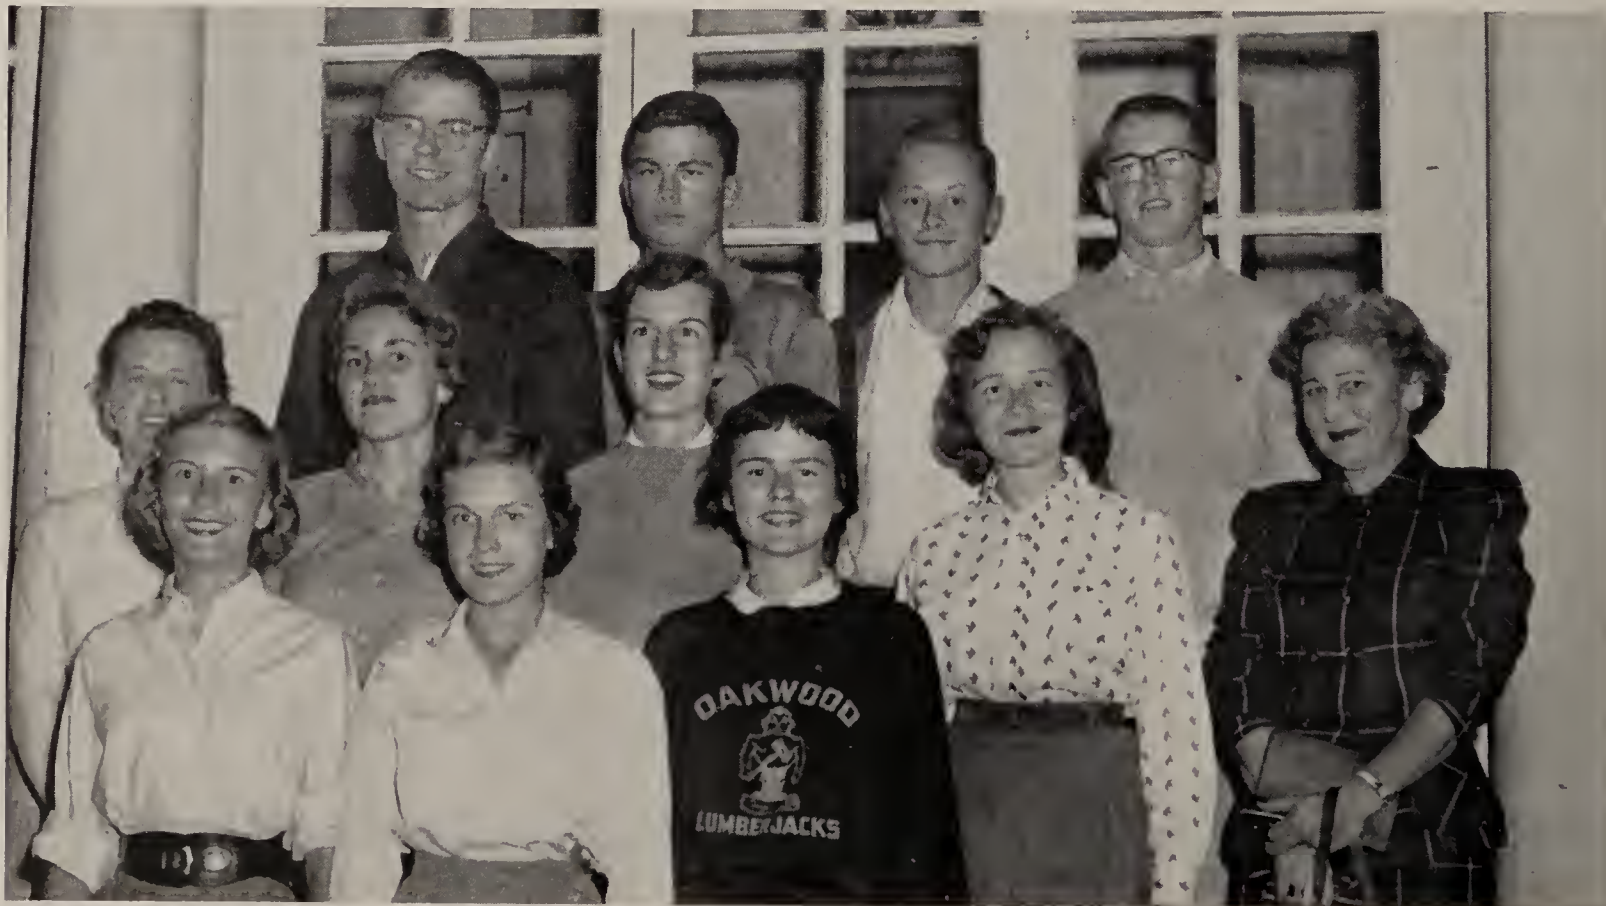

The annual kickoff for the year began with an educational day at Camp Kern in September. School spirit, open houses, Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y were among the many topics discussed. Dave Grout and Nancy Craig were co-chairmen of this big event.

After all the home football and basketball games everyone went to open houses held at the "Y" for dancing and entertainment. After the Randolph basketball game, the student body honored the varsity cheerleaders. The highlight of the open houses was the "Basket Ball" at which Suzie Headley and Nick Warring reigned as queen and king.

"Mad Midnight" was the theme for the New Year's Eve Dance. Lively decorations, horns, funny hats, and merry celebrators added to the evening's festivities. Paula Gregg and Rob Gieringer were co-chairmen for the dance.

Gridders Win Again in '56

Under the able leadership of head coach Wysocki, assisted by Mr. Armbruster and Mr. Small, the Lumberjacks wound up another successful year, posting five wins as against three losses and one tie. Although things got off to a rather gloomy start with a 14 to 7 loss to West Carrollton in the Premiere, the Lumberjacks came to life and found the groove by the second week. Jack Heyde scored a total of 85 points for the year, topping Brad Boen's previous seasonal record of 82.

Jack Heyde battles upfield.

In the season's opener at Lebanon the Lumberjacks were able to cop only a tie, 6 to 6. After getting almost no place in the first half, the Warriors finally scored in the third period. Oakwood soon followed with a long touchdown pass to Warring off the left side tying the score.

The Lumberjacks got off to an early start with Eaton before an enthusiastic home crowd, their first of the season, as Terry Coan rounded left end for the first touchdown in Oakwood's 32 to 12 win. In the second half Warring wasted but eleven seconds in gaining the Jack's second tally as he raced 80 yards up the middle. This started things rolling as Oakwood halfback Jack Heyde pulled a fumble out of the air and fought his way to the goal for Oakwood's third touchdown. In the final quarter the Jacks scored twice on a plunge by Oseit and a 15-yard run by Coan. Eaton scored its points on two runs by Werle.

In the closing seconds of one of the most exciting games of the year with West Milton here, Oakwood won its second straight league decision 14 to 12. Despite the breaks they were getting in the first half the Jacks didn't capitalize while the Bulldogs scored twice. In the third period the Jacks finally found the range as Chuck Richey's fumble recovery paved the way for Jack Heyde's left end sweep and Oakwood's first touchdown. Then with only seconds remaining, Nick Warring received West Milton's kick and raced 45 yards for the brilliant game-winning touchdown. Houser did the kicking.

In one of the wildest scoring exhibitions of the year Oakwood rolled over Tipp City 52 to 12. Although Tipp crossed the goal line first, Oakwood came to life as halfback Jack Heyde scored with a run off the left side. From this point on the Jacks were in complete control getting touchdowns in the second quarter on three successive passes to Heyde. They continued scoring in the third and fourth quarters on two runs by backs, Warring and Coan, a quarterback sneak by Phillips, and a pass from Comisar to Crew. Oakwood's kicking specialist, Dick Houser, made the conversions. Late in the final period Tipp City scored again for its only other tally.

Celebrating their annual homecoming with an 18 to 6 victory, the Lumberjacks gained revenge over West Carrollton who had beaten them earlier in the Premiere. Near the close of the first half Jack Heyde took a pitchout from Phillips and scored, climaxing a 62 yard drive. Although the Pirates managed to score once on a run by Pierce, the Jacks went on to win with Terry Coan providing the necessary margin with two touchdown runs in the second half.

On their way toward a perfect year, Randolph handed Oakwood its first defeat of the season, 20 to 7. Although the Jacks drew first blood on a pass play to Heyde, Randolph dominated the remainder of the action with two touchdown plays in the first quarter and one again in the fourth to close out the game.

In Oakwood's last home game of the season, a strong Vandalia team proved too much, outscoring the Lumberjacks 32 to 20. Oakwood's scoring came entirely in the first half on fine runs by halfbacks Heyde and Warring and a pass from Phillips to Heyde with Houser making the conversions on two of the plays. The Aviators scored their points on five long runs.

Heyde cuts around right end.

The Lumberjacks clinched third place in the league finale by beating Trotwood 19 to 14. Oakwood got its points on a pass to Heyde and a couple of one-yard plunges by Warring and King. Madison scored twice on runs by Stouer.

In the final game with Wyoming, Oakwood suffered its worst defeat of the season, 39 to 21. Despite the trouble they were having, the Jacks finally came to life in the third period scoring twice on a pass and a run by Heyde. Oakwood's other tally came earlier on a pass to Warring. Wyoming scored six touchdowns.

Cagers Face Foes

For the Lumberjacks and their returning coach, Mr. Gardner, the year seemed to be one streak of bad luck after another. As a result they emerged with a 3-14 won-and-lost record for the regular season.

In the opening game the Jacks lost to Bellbrook 60 to 45. It was the fifth straight victory for Bellbrook. Bill Barber and Nick Warring led the Lumberjack's scoring with nine points apiece.

The following evening luck seemed to repeat itself as the Jacks bowed to Patterson 55 to 45. Barber had fifteen points.

In the Lebanon contest Oakwood battled on more even terms but finally succumbed 59 to 47. Warring and Barber led with ten points each.

In the following game, the Bulldogs of Fairview romped to an 81 to 53 victory. High men for the Jacks were Warring and Barber who made 14 and 12 points respectively.

During the holidays the strong Belmont team proved too much when they downed the Lumberjacks 52 to 41 in spite of the close 22 to 20 half-time score.

Oakwood's first victory, 43 to 40 over Eaton, was also their first league game of the year. Once again

Barber and Warring led the way with 15 and 13 tallies.

At Northeastern, Oakwood lost 66 to 53. Senior guard Nick Warring made ten points.

The West Milton Bulldogs grabbed an early lead and went on to win over the Lumberjacks 60 to 47. Warring dumped in eighteen points.

In their second victory of the season Oakwood outlasted Phillipsburg the next night 42 to 37.

In one of the most exciting games of the year Oakwood fell before Tipp City 45 to 41.

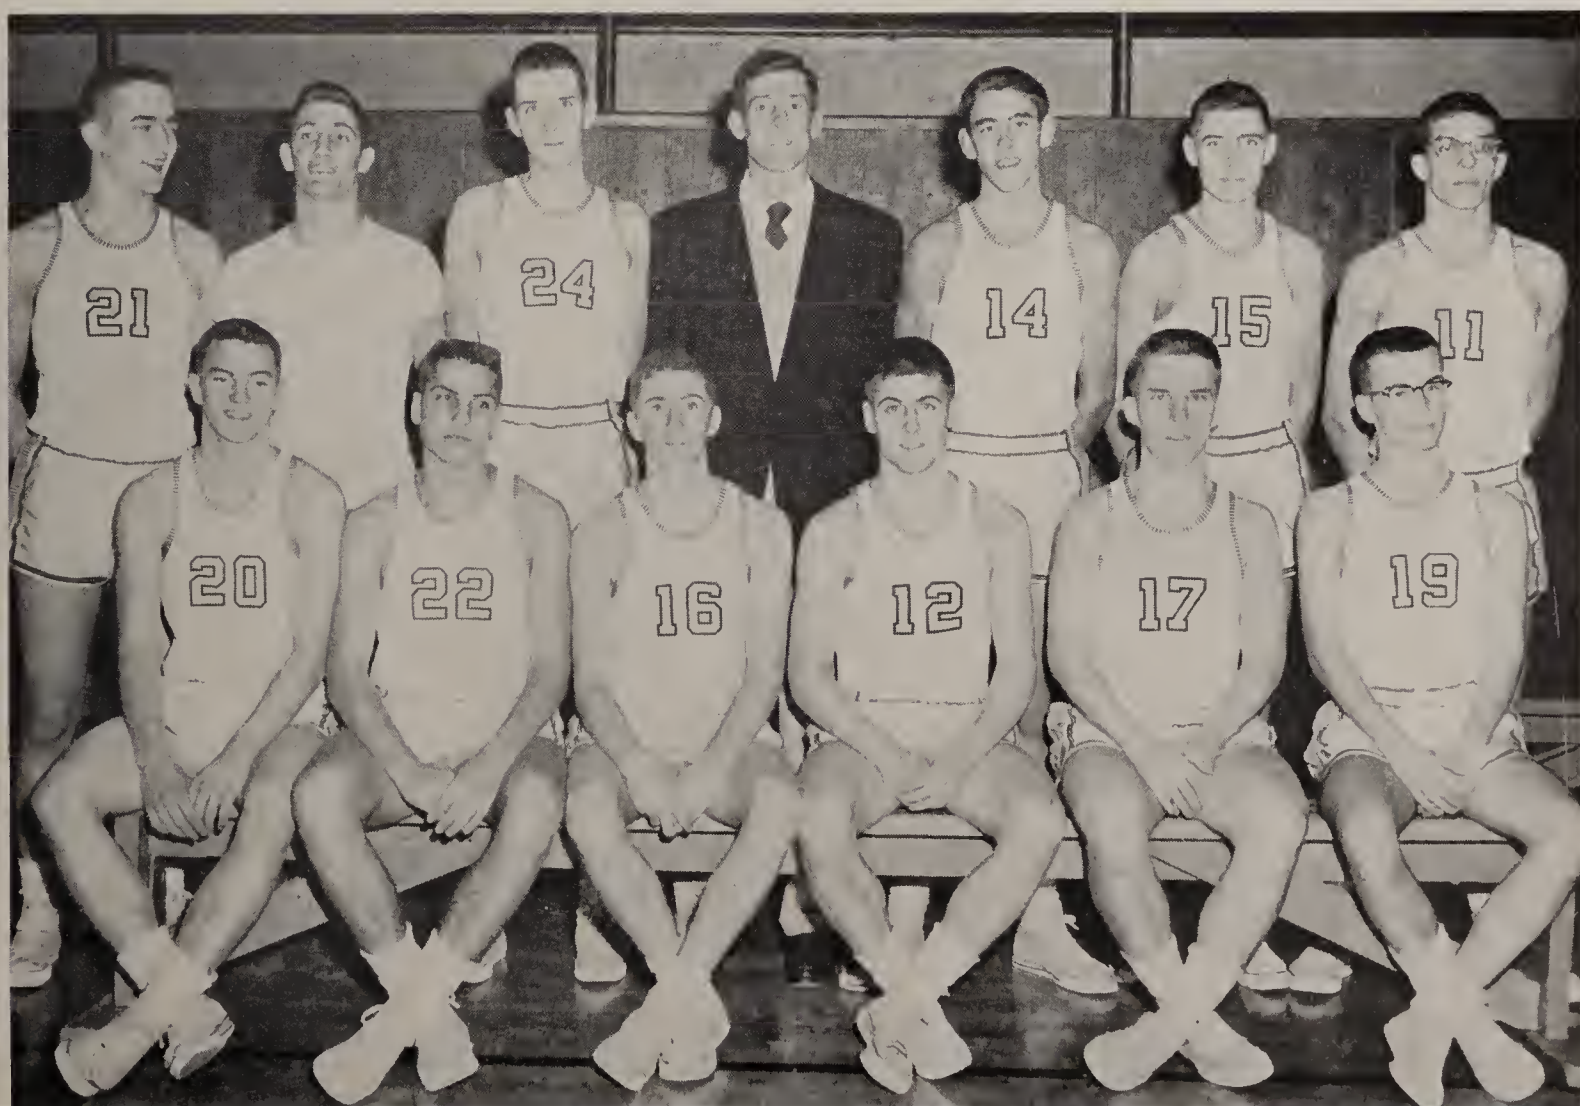

At Troy bad luck seemed to dominate the 60 to 44 setback for the Lumberjacks. Chuck Richey's ankle injury in this fray sidelined him for a week.

At West Carrollton Oakwood suffered a 54 to 44 defeat despite the fine efforts of Bill Barber and Barney Munger who together scored 25 of Oakwood's 44 points.

Oakwood's third triumph of the season came in a thrilling game with Centerville when the Jacks won 52 to 49.

The Lumberjacks looked better in the Randolph contest than in any other game yet, but Waymire's twenty point contribution was too much as Oakwood bowed 45 to 34.

The Lumberjacks closed the season with a 40 to 31 loss to Fairborn, rounding out the seasonal 3-14 won-and-lost mark. Nick Warring had eleven points.

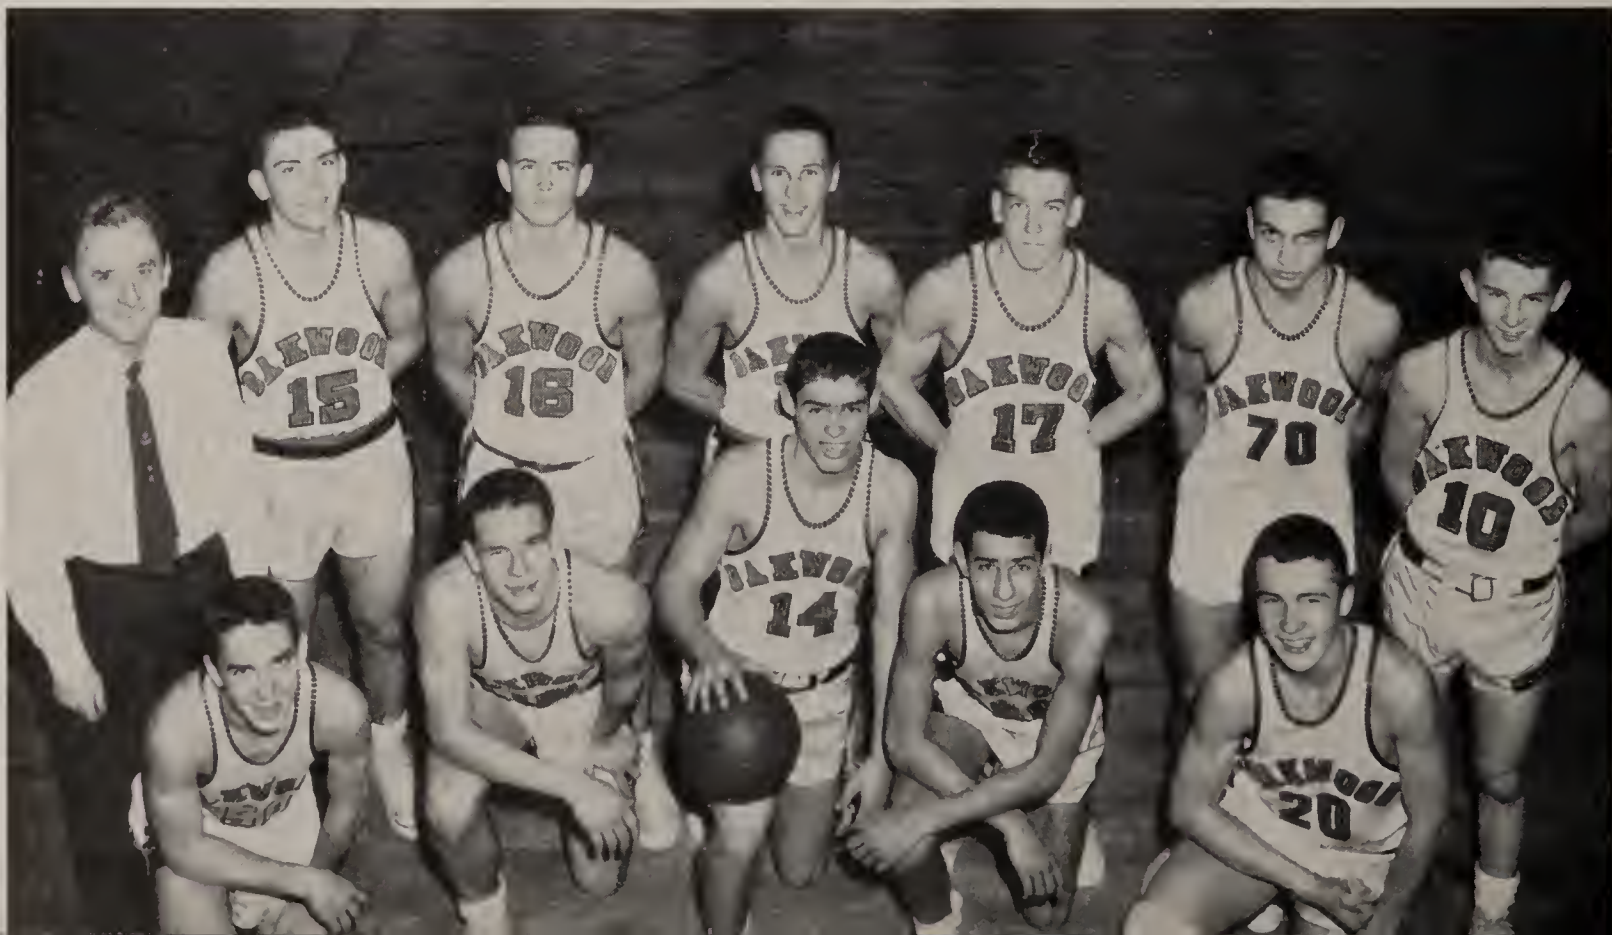

The reserve basketball team, coached by Mr. Burton, won eight games and lost nine. Active players who added promise to the future were: sophomores, Bill Bippus, Jay Back, Fred Setzer, Bill Clymer, Joly and Vandenberg surround opponent while Stuart looks on.

Intramurals got off to an enthusiastic start this year with Mr. Wysocki acting as adviser and Mr. Armbruster doing the refereeing.

In the senior high the National League had seven teams while the American had six. In tournament play Gorney's team won the American League title while Abel's took the National. When these two teams met for the school championship, Gorney's team won 21 to 20. Members of his team were: Jim Campbell, Gene Giffin, Dave Heisey, Mike Mereness, Tom Billings, John Fleischauer, and Bill Wilcox.

The ninth grade league, composed of four teams was paced by Wagner's team which won both the tournament and league championships.

In the seventh and eighth grade leagues, teams headed by seventh grader, Joe Cockerill, and eighth grader, Bob Stutz, won their league titles.

Golfers Drive for Victory

In recent years the Oakwood Golf team coached by Mr. McGowan has established a fine record which the '57 squad of fifteen players should uphold, if not better.

Last year the team won seven games and lost two, finishing second in the City League. Oakwood golfers also placed third in District competition and out of twenty-four teams, captured fifth place in the Tri-State Tournament.

This season the schedule includes nine matches with Wilbur Wright, Fairmont, Kiser, Patterson, Stivers, Chaminade, Fairview, Belmont, and Roosevelt. Each Tuesday the team practices at the Dayton Country Club.

The five top boys who appear to be in the lead are Skip Kemp, Randy Thrasher, Dave Young, Bill MacKinnon, and Walter Scheidt.

In the first two matches of the year Oakwood defeated Wilbur Wright 15½ to 0 and Kiser 16 to 0.

Later in the spring a tournament for junior high golfers is held. This enables Mr. McGowan to get a glimpse of what future teams will be like.

MacKinnon, Thrasher, and Young watch top man Skip Kemp.

Jacks Are Diamond Kings

Mr. Armbruster hits infield practice.

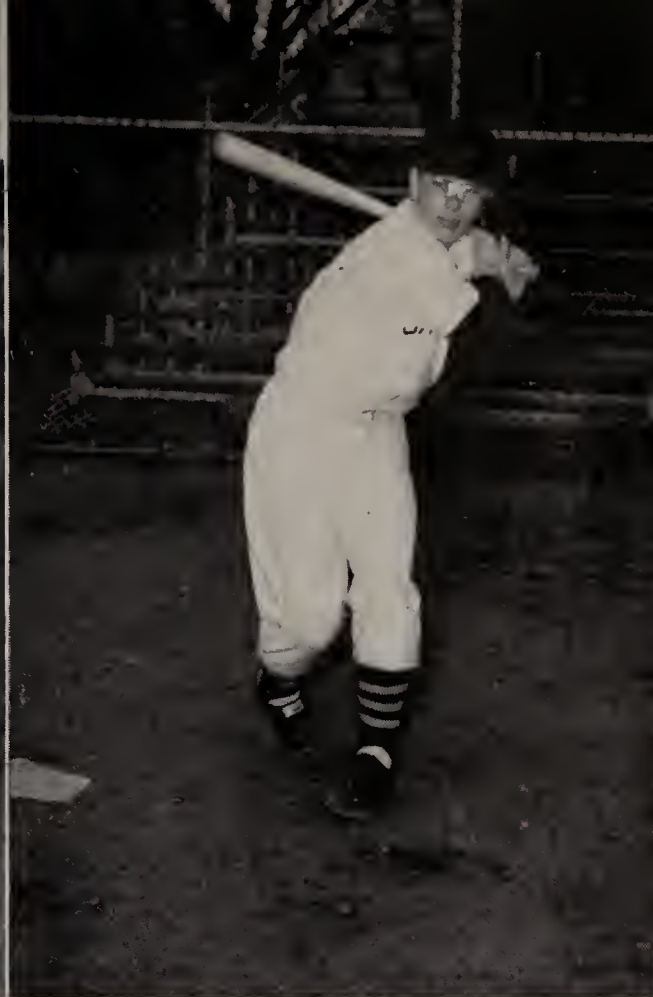

Although rain hampered many of the early baseball practices, Coach Armbruster succeeded in building a promising team centered around the seven returning lettermen—Jack Heyde, Charles Phillips, Dave Heisey, Jim Campbell, Pete Vandenberg, Terry Coan, and Fred Setzer.

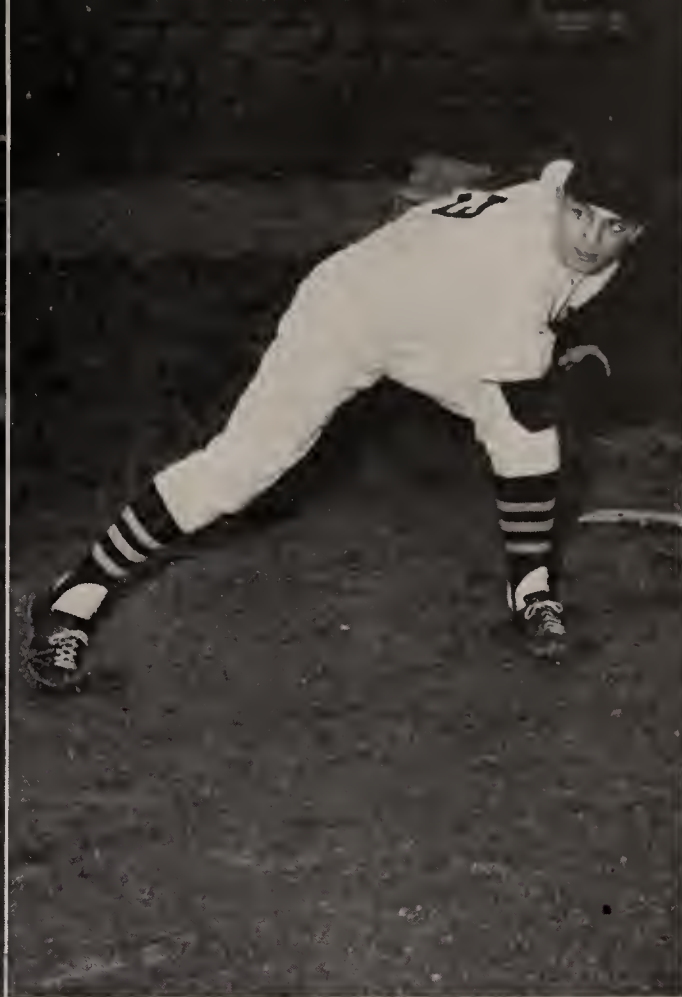

This year the team is seeking to better the six and six record established for last season. Bill Bippus and Dick Morter will share first base duties while Jim Campbell should nail down second. Coan and Back will handle shortstop and Vandenberg is the probable choice at third base. The outfield situation seems to be fairly well established as Dave Heisey will be in left field while Giffin should capture the job in center and Fred Setzer in right. Jack Heyde and Charles Phillips will handle the pitching chores with sophomore Phil Geiger behind the plate.

Mr. Small fires the starting gun.

The defending SWBL track champs are seeking another winning season under the able leadership of their coach, Mr. Small.

Last year, in addition to winning the SWBL, the team won the Madison Relays and placed sixth in those at Troy while compiling their record of five victories and two defeats. Robby Riber broke the school record in the low hurdles and tied the same in the high hurdles.

This year Mr. Small has scheduled seven regular dual meets as well as the Madison and Troy Relays and the SWBL meet. Grout, Warring, and Bieser seem to be set in the sprints while Jaeger and King will handle the 440, and Moeller and Stuart the 880. Kunst and Mitchell will run the hurdles and Warring should take care of both high jump and broad jump. Dave King and Clark Brooks will throw the discus and Skip Kunst will be the team's only pole vault entry.

Netters Aim for Championship

The Lumberjacks are looking forward to another successful season as they aim for their ninth straight City Championship under the direction of Mr. Hummon. Returning lettermen from last year who carry most of the load are Tom Holton, Nick Warring, Bob Nevin, Don Noe, and Darrell Lauer. Other promising players are Pete Smith, Richard Haacke, Leslie Sisson, Barney Munger, and Bill Kendell.

Regional matches will be played May 17 and 18 and the state finals the following weekend.

Junior Jacks Look Ahead

The most outstanding record of the year as far as junior high sports were concerned was turned in by Mr. Carr's freshman football team which went undefeated for the first time in Oakwood's history. The excellent record consisted of wins over Tipp City, Trotwood, West Carrollton, Northridge, and Randolph and a tie with Miamisburg. The Jacks scored a total of 132 points holding their opponents to only 32. High men for the team were Phil Munger who had nine touchdowns and Bob Herbruck who had eight.

The seventh and eighth grade team coached by Mr. Small also wound up a winning season with three wins, one loss and one tie.

On the basketball court the freshman team coached by Mr. Armbruster posted a very impressive record of eight wins and three losses. The Jacks won twice over West Carrollton, Beavercreek, Butler, and once over Randolph and Madison. Losses were to OSSO, Randolph, and Madison. Bruce Comisar, Jim Pinnell, and Don Huxley together scored 306 of Oakwood's 430 points.

Mr. Carr's seventh and eighth grade team was also successful as they ended the year with eight victories and only one defeat, an excellent record.

Although rain clouded the preliminary play-offs and practices, junior high tennis, coached by Miss Hayner, holds bright hopes for the future. As the team stands, five veterans—Bruce Comisar, Craig Johnson, Steve Johnson, John Sisson, and Dave Thomas—will repeat as regulars while seventh grader Bob Brundige remains as one of the most promising newcomers.

More than sixty boys came out for track under Mr. Carr. Munger and Bartholomew will run the 100 yard dash along with Jack Cheney, an outstanding seventh grader. Pinnell and Cheney will take the 440 while Holz, Carr, and Stickel will run the 880, and Mitchell and Stickel will handle the low hurdles. Other events, high and broad jumps, are taken by Shively, Kievit, Carr, Stickel, Mitchell, Pinnell and Munger. On the shot-put and discus Mr. Carr has named Herbruck, Demetri Preonas, Huxley, Miller, and Bert Smith.

Jills Continue Winning Streak

For the second consecutive year the Oakwood Lumberjills finished their season with an undefeated record. The girls, coached by Miss Hayner, played eight games with six victories, two ties, and no losses. The starting varsity squad consisted of all seniors with substitutions of juniors and sophomores.

Since there were 73 girls participating in hockey in the senior high, the sophomores formed their own team but lost both of their games. However, there were some regular sophomores on the varsity and reserve teams.

Industrious managers—Jane Woodward, Martha Smith, Alice Moore, and Brenda Miller—kept the team supplied with apples, band-aids, and other necessities.

The Jills made a good showing in the first game with Centerville by beating their opponents 6-1 on the home field. The reserves also showed the results of hard work by winning 4-0.

West Carrollton proved a little rougher than last year in the second match. The final score for varsity was 3-1; reserves, 3-1.

The best competition of the year was provided by Fairmont in the third match. The Jills went to the neighboring school for the event in high spirits, but at the end of the first half the score was 2-0 Fairmont. All of the spectators agreed that the playing in the second half of this game was the best all year. The Jills came from behind and tied the score in the last few minutes of play; however, the reserves, although they played a hard game, lost 2-1.

Fairview was host to Oakwood for their fourth game. Although the weather was quite warm for hockey and the field was bumpy, the Jills won 3-1. After the reserve game, which Oakwood won 3-0, cokes were served to the team in the Cola Cottage.

Co-captain Georganne Morris

The most exciting game of the year was the one where the girls traveled to Cincy to play the University students for the fifth game. The bus ride was great fun and so was the dinner afterward. The game itself was thrilling with the Jills playing very well but tying the score 2-2.

The sixth game was a return match with West Carrollton there. The varsity ran up a fine score of 6-0, and the reserves also won 2-0. This seemed to be a game of "good will" as there were many humorous events throughout both games, such as placing the ball before driving it and so forth.

Indian Hill of Cincinnati came to Oakwood for the seventh game. Never having played Indian Hill before, everyone was curious as to the ability of their squad, especially after the first half with a no score game. However, in the second half the Jills came through with four successive goals to make the final score 4-0. Only one game was played, after which the Mothers served "hot" cocoa and "sloppy joes."

Oakwood's final game of the 1956 season was held here with Northridge. The event got off to a slow start, but after the first half the Jills scored three goals to make the final score 3-0. During the varsity game, one of the Northridge girls was injured while trying to score. Fortunately it was not too serious and the rest of the game ran smoothly. The reserves also won by a score of 2-1.

The hockey team would like to thank the "pep boys"—Bob Moeller, Glenn Cooper, Steve Huffman, and Bob Williams—for their loyal and enthusiastic support and for creating an interest in hockey and girls' sports.

Closing point of the 1956 season was the traditional hockey banquet in the library. The victorious juniors and sophomores showed promise of fine material for next year in the senior-underclassman game played before the award dinner.

Miss Hayner and Mrs. Jones were presented with gifts from the team by the co-captains. Hockey awards were then given out by Miss Hayner. Four senior girls who received gold hockey pins and three year letters were L. Johnson, C. Hummon, B. Gerard, and G. Morris. Hockey letters were also presented to the following players: seniors—Adelberger, Brown, Courchene, Craig, Cunningham, Freehafer, Goetz, Lewis, Madden, Mansfield, Mitchell, Pees, Prugh, Riber, Ross, and Van Scoyk; juniors—Agenbroad, Bieser, Boian, Braun, Corwin, Devol, Edmonson, Fleischauer, Gardner, Koppe, James, and Storms; sophomores—Alexander, Anagnoston, Ferguson, Nichols, and Olson.

Hockey managers who also received letters were J. Woodward, M. Smith, A. Moore, and B. Miller. As the hockey season came to its close, everyone looked back on a successful year. Now the juniors and sophomores are looking forward to next year's schedule and another undefeated record.

Basketball Enthusiasts Achieve Success

Under the supervision of Coach Hayner the Oakwood Jills proved victorious by winning six out of eight games in the 1957 season. Elected as co-captains of the team were Linda Mansfield and Linda Cunningham.

The season's opening game was played at home with Middletown. Since the Middies trounced the Jills 50-30, it was evident that lots of practice was in store for our girls, and also for the reserve team members who lost 30-10.

In the second game the Jills made a terrific comeback by defeating Fairborn on their home court 46-13. Although the reserves did not follow the varsity example and lost 20-22, the games were well played by both teams.

West Carrollton journeyed to Oakwood for the third game of the season. The opposition was not too strong as the Jills made 37 baskets compared to Carrollton's 16. The varsity score ended 37-16 and the reserves, 16-9.

For the fourth game of the year Oakwood was host to Vandalia. Although the Jills were ahead by a large margin during the first half, the final score was OHS 44, Vandalia 33. The reserve's score was 19-16.

Beavercreek played the Jills at home for the fifth game. This proved to be a high scoring game as Nichols led for Oakwood with 32 points. Final score was a victory for the Jills of 57-42. Reserves also scored high by winning 42-5.

Fairmont, playing host to Oakwood for the sixth game, defeated the varsity team 62-37. The Dragon's squad played excellent ball while the Jills seemed to be hitting an off day. However, the Oakwood reserves won 28-18.

The seventh game of the season was played on the Jills' home court against Tipp City. This game, the best played all season, was finally won by Oakwood 31-29. The reserves piled up an even larger score by winning 16-7.

The Jills traveled to Northridge for the season's final game. The varsity squad won 54-38, and the reserves won 35-22. This made the season's record for the varsity six wins and two losses, and the reserve record six wins and two losses.

Frosh Prove Triumphant

The hockey season proved successful for the freshman girls who were undefeated in all four games. This victorious record was due to the guidance of Mrs. Jones and co-captains Lee Kampf and Carol Cunningham.

Also coached by Mrs. Jones in basketball, the girls were again undefeated. The team as a unit showed evidence of hard practice and effort in both of these competitive sports and now looks forward to the next season.

Freshman girls enjoy the interscholastic sports of hockey and basketball.

Traditional games of badminton and ping-pong provide recreation for all classes.

Spring Sports Take Over

Immediately after the basketball season, sports for the Jills took on a more moderate appearance. Badminton and ping-pong's popularity was due to the many tournaments held in these activities. The senior and junior highs had four events each, which consisted of both badminton and ping-pong doubles and singles matches.

Some of the more industrious girls tried their luck with volleyball. This provided fun and experience for those who were interested in a "new" sport.

When the weather became warmer, all of the gym classes played softball outside on the ball diamond. Although an actual team was never formed, the girls enjoyed the chance to participate in this sport.

All of the girls from the seventh through the twelfth grades showed an active interest in these spring sports, and all look forward to playing them next year after completing the hockey and basketball seasons.

Tennis Accomplishments

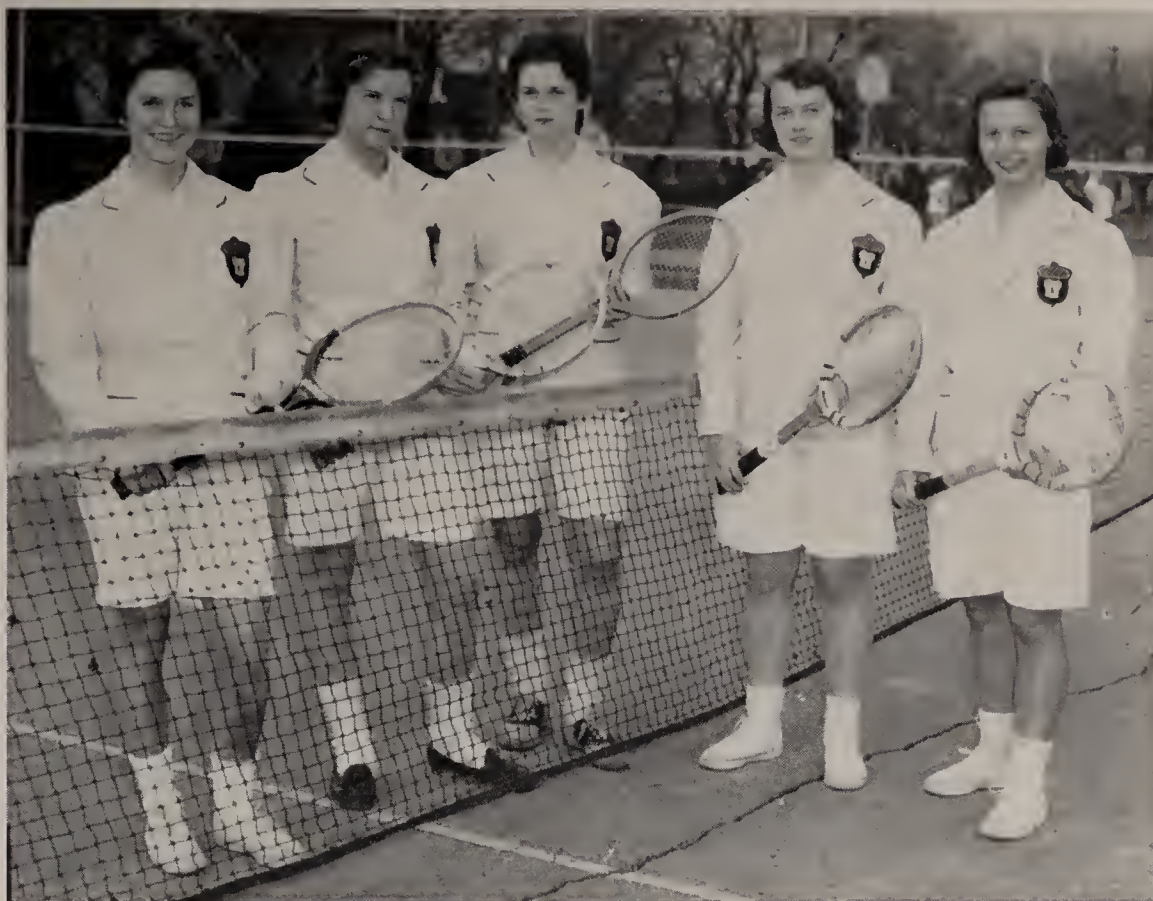

The senior high girls' tennis team began its season as soon as the weather permitted. After the challenge matches were played off during spring vacation, the squad had four returning lettermen—Adelberger, L. Johnson, James, and K. Johnson. Other team members were Bryant and Nichols. Both the junior and senior squads were made up of three singles and two doubles teams.

A lot of time and hard work went into the Jills' practice session after school at the "Y." Their season consisted of six matches: two each with Hamilton, Middletown, and Fairmont.

Although all of the girls looked forward to the games, they were of special importance to seniors Laura Johnson and Judy Adelberger. Laura and Judy had played many of the same girls from the various schools since seventh grade.

Shown by Jills

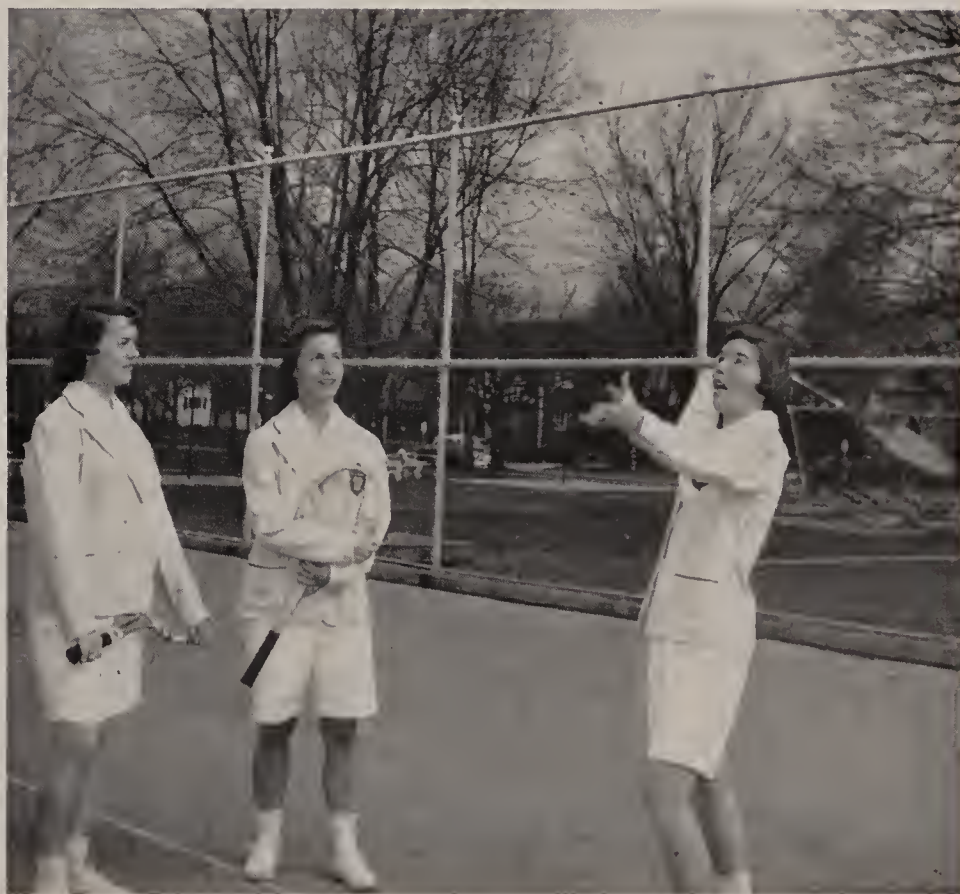

The Jills' home matches were played at the "Y." The Fairmont away game was played at Walnut Hills, and the others were played at the out-of-town schools.

This year the junior high girls' tennis team consisted of Durbin, Euchenhofer, Gagel, Gardner, Hinton, Kampf, and Taylor. Members from the previous year were Taylor, Hinton, Gagel, and Kampf.

Hamilton Junior High and two of the Middletown schools headed the season's schedule. This resulted in six matches due to playing the three teams twice.

The annual spring sports picnic ended the successful season which had been supervised by Miss Hayner. It was attended by both girls' teams as well as the junior high boys' tennis team.

To Elizabeth "3"

Well, it's almost over. We have had lots of fun this year and of course, we have had some rough spots, too. We will have to get together several times this summer, storms or no storms. Remember all the good times we have had this year. I know you consider me your best friend, just as I consider you mine. Everyone has friends but there is always someone to whom you "tell all" and go around with the most. Just remember the good times and laugh, forget anything else. For good memories, throw in a few parties, a couple of pizzas (one with 15. + 15.), a few excursions downtown this year, and a few good chortles. That's enough for the past, let's look at the future.

I know we are both going to "work" this summer on various things. I have started already. If we really do all the things we have said we would this summer, next year should really be a great year. Of course, this year was a lot of fun and some hard work, too; but somehow I feel that next year will be even better. Just think, we will be Seniors! It really sounds good, doesn't it?

Well, I hope you have fun this summer. I think I will. We have several things in store, including moving. Hooray! We will have to go swimming a couple of times. Too bad we don't live near Lake Erie any more. When I learn how to drive, I'll give you a ride. Aren't you honored? Well, I see time and space are running out, just as this year is. Give my best to your mother and dad. They are great people. I'll see you this summer, barring complications. Until then, remain as nice as you are for as long as you can. I give you my best wishes & good luck in everything you do.

Love,
Linda
